Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement (the "Agreement") is made and entered into this _____ day of _____, 2006, by and between Choice Finance Corporation, with principal place of business at 6001 Montrose Road, Rockville, Maryland 20852, and _____.

1. Proprietary Information. Proprietary information disclosed includes any and all technical and non-technical information, including without limitation, information concerning financial, accounting or marketing reports, business plans, commission and compensation plans, usernames, passwords, rate sheets, company emails, company forms, company information intended only for it's employees, analyses, forecasts, marketing strategies and plans, lead and referral sources, predictions, projections, intellectual property, trade secrets and know-how. Proprietary Information may take the form of documentation, drawings, specifications, software, technical or engineering data, and other forms, and may be communicated orally, in writing, by electronic or magnetic media, by visual observation and by other means. Proprietary Information includes any reports, analyses, studies or other materials, whether prepared by the receiving party or otherwise, that contain or are based upon Proprietary Information covered by this Agreement.

2. Confidentiality. The parties agree that the receiving party will not at any time divulge or make accessible to any third party, other than as set forth below or appropriate to the use of the receiving party or any third party, for any reason or purpose whatsoever, any Proprietary Information disclosed or obtained by the receiving party.

The receiving party shall:

a) require employees, agents or representatives with access to the Proprietary Information to comply with the terms of this Agreement; and

b) limit access to the Proprietary Information to those of employees, agents or representatives actually involved in the process of evaluating the Proprietary Information. Each party will also take all other reasonably prudent measures necessary to protect the confidential nature of the other's Proprietary Information.

3. Non-Proprietary Information. This Agreement will not apply to any portion of the Proprietary Information that is:

a) already known to the receiving party; or

b) generally available to the public or subsequently becomes so without breach of this Agreement by the receiving party; or

c) made public by the disclosing party; or

d) independently developed by the receiving party; or

e) received from a third party independent of the disclosing party without breaching an obligation of confidentiality; or

f) required to be disclosed by operation of law.

4. Ownership of Information. All information furnished to the receiving party by the disclosing party shall, unless otherwise specified in writing by the disclosing party, remain the property of the disclosing party; and the written information, and any copies thereof, shall either be promptly returned to the disclosing party upon its written request or destroyed at the disclosing party's option.

5. No License of Patent Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as granting any license or rights to the receiving party by the disclosing party under any patent of the United States of America or any foreign country or otherwise.

6. Limited Purpose. In the event the parties enter into an agreement concerning a business relationship, the provisions of such agreement shall supersede and prevail over any conflicting provision of this Agreement.

7. Arbitration. Any dispute concerning the execution, performance or breach of this Agreement will be resolved by binding arbitration pursuant to the Commercial Rules then obtaining of the American Arbitration Association, before a single arbitrator in Maryland. The finding of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon both parties, and judgment thereon may be entered in any court of jurisdiction.

The arbitration award may allocate costs of arbitration and reasonable attorneys' fees, may impose equitable, including injunctive, relief to the extent permitted by applicable law. Notwithstanding, any party may bring an equitable action in any court of jurisdiction seeking the enforcement by injunction of any provision of this Agreement.

No rights of third parties will be created by this Section 7, no third party not a signatory to this Agreement will be entitled to intervene or be part of any arbitration contemplated hereby, nor will it be a defense to any such arbitration that any party not a signatory to this Agreement will be an appropriate or necessary party for the resolution of any matter to be arbitrated. The arbitrator will apply the laws of the State of Maryland in resolving any issue of: applicability and tolling of the statute of limitations; application of the doctrine of laches; and waiver of rights or claims.

8. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Maryland, exclusive of its choice of law and conflict of law principles. In witness whereof, the parties have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first above written.
